

The Kazakhstan association KAZENERGY announces about the educational grant-making, scholarships, organization of Olympiads and intellectual competitions among students studying on a fee basis.

To participate in the competitive examination you need to make out an electronic requisition on the grant.kazenergy.com website from July 10, 2018 till August 15, 2018.

Conditions for participation in competition:

- 1) RK citizenship;
- 2) the correspondence of GPA of the certificate of general secondary education is not less than 80% of the maximum established by the MES RK and / or the conformity of the CNT / CTA certificate is not less than 60% of the maximum value established by the MES RK;
- 3) the average graduation score by diploma is not less than 4.5 (out of 5.0) or GPA is not less than 3.33 (B +);
- 4) certificate of enrollment for training / training, indicating the course, form, training cost for one academic academic year, established for payment by legal entities, certified by signature.

List of required documents:

- 1) standard application form (www.kazenergy.com - Educational program - Scholarships and grants - Education at the expense of subsoil users);
- 2) copy of identify card;
- 3) copy of the transcript with GPA for the last year of training;
- 4) confirmation of enrollment for training / training, indicating the cost of training for one academic academic year, established for payment by legal entities;
- 5) local municipal statement of residence;
- 6) proof of family status (only for large families);
- 7) a document confirming the candidate's belonging to one of the categories: low-income family and broken family, poor and incomplete family, orphan, disabled (if available);
- 8) copies of documents indicating about participation in competition, olympiads, etc. (if available);
- 9) motivation letter (for applicants for an academic degree "master" abroad).

For more information, please visit www.kazenergy.com (Educational program - Scholarships and grants - Education at the expense of subsoil users), or call: 8 (7172) 79 -49 -75.